The Westmont Public Library was selected to receive a Latino Americans: 500 Years of History grant to foster discussion about Latino history and culture. The library has also received the six-part documentary film Latino Americans, created for PBS by the WETA public television station. The award-winning series chronicles the history of Latinos in the United States from the 16th century to present day. Learn more about the series at pbs.org/latino-americans. The $3,000 grant supports the following programs this fall:

FILMS AND DISCUSSIONS

EMPIRE OF DREAMS Saturday, September 26, 2 – 4 pm ✓

Enjoy a screening of the episode, “Empire of Dreams,” from the award-winning documentary film Latino Americans. This segment traces the lives of Latinos who arrived in the United States between 1880–1942 as they sought refuge from chaos and violence in their home countries.

PERIL AND PROMISE Saturday, November 14, 2 – 4 pm ✓

Join us for a viewing of the episode, “Peril and Promise.” This episode examines the changing Latin Diaspora between 1980–2000 as a second wave of immigrants reaches U.S. shores.

Light appetizers will be served. The films will be followed by a conversation led by Xóchitl Bada, Associate Professor in the Latin American and Latino Studies Program at University of Illinois at Chicago. Ages 14+ are welcome.

DANCE AND CULTURE

CHA CHA CHA: LATIN AMERICAN DANCES

Saturday, October 10, 2 – 3 pm

Bring your family and friends for a musical tour through Central and South America, Mexico, and the Caribbean with Nelson and Paola Sosa, professional folklore singers and musicians. Participants will have the opportunity to play an instrument and learn the basic steps of Cumbia, Merengue, Cha Cha Cha, Bachata, and Polka while learning about the countries where the dances originated.

Latino Americans: 500 Years of History has been made possible through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Library Association.
