Schedule of Fines and Fees 2021

Library Cards

Borrowing will be suspended when an individual's fines and/or fees reach $10.01.

- a) Residents, businesses, and property owners paying taxes to the Westmont Public Library (WPL), receive a library card at no additional fee.
- b) Non-resident library card (household) annual fee is based on tax bill method. Assessed valuation will be multiplied by the library's current tax bill rate, the same multiplier as residents. Non-resident renters will be assessed 15% of one month's rent and must present a copy of their lease to obtain a card. Fee exemptions exist for non-resident youth whose household falls at or below the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Income Eligibility Guidelines and for non-resident veterans who are exempt from paying property taxes due to a service-connected disability of at least 70%.
- c) Replacement of lost or damaged WPL card: $1.00.

Non-compliance fines

- a) For lost or damaged material checked out at WPL, patrons pay the replacement cost plus $5.00 processing fee for staff time and supplies.
- b) For lost or damaged WPL material, WPL patrons have the option to pay the replacement cost plus $5.00 OR provide the replacement item (matching ISBN in new condition) plus $5.00 processing fee for staff time and supplies.
- c) For each account sent to the collection agency: $20.00.
- d) Checks returned from the bank with non-sufficient funds: $20.00.
